OPSI Resolution #2026-2

Honoring Kim Drexler

WHEREAS, Kim Drexler, a Connecticut native and graduate of Brown University, has lived and served the people of Delaware since 1986; and

WHEREAS, Kim built a distinguished professional career in finance and energy policy, including serving as Vice President and Senior Private Banker with Wilmington Trust Company prior to her appointment to the Delaware Public Service Commission; and

WHEREAS, Governor Jack Markell appointed Kim to the Delaware Public Service Commission in May 2015, recognizing her financial expertise and commitment to public service; and

WHEREAS, Kim served on the Delaware Public Service Commission for eleven years, from May 2015 to May 2026, bringing thoughtful leadership to the regulation of Delaware's utilities; and

WHEREAS, Kim's judgment, collaborative spirit, and dedication to the public interest strengthened the Delaware Public Service Commission and enriched OPSI throughout her tenure; and

WHEREAS, Kim dutifully served as OPSI's Treasurer, bringing care and diligence to the organization's financial stewardship; and

WHEREAS, the OPSI Board extends their warmest congratulations to Kim Drexler on the completion of her eleven years of service and wish her all the best;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the OPSI Board of Directors expresses its deep appreciation and gratitude to Kim Drexler for her dedicated service and invaluable contributions to the Delaware Public Service Commission and to OPSI, and extends its sincere best wishes and well-deserved congratulations on the completion of her tenure with the Commission.¹
